Where can I see my $50,000 Homestead Exemption?

Look at the bottom left corner of your TRIM notice, marked "exemptions" and you will see a breakdown of each exemption applied to your property, including the additional Homestead Exemption.

IF YOUR ASSESSED VALUE IS...	YOUR EXEMPTION WILL BE...
$75,000 or more	Original $25,000 Homestead Exemption plus full $25,000 additional Amendment 1 Homestead Exemption
$50,000 - $75,000	Original $25,000 Homestead Exemption plus additional Amendment 1 Homestead Exemption up to $25,000
$50,000 or less	Original $25,000 Homestead Exemption and no additional Amendment 1 Homestead Exemption

New Homeowner?

You may qualify for substantial tax savings with Homestead Exemption. This exemption is not automatically applied to your new home. You must file an application with the Property Appraiser. Failing to apply for your homestead exemption can cost you hundreds of dollars each year.

Apply online at www.BCPAO.us

Changes in Your Property's Title

If you have made changes to the title of your property such as a change in marital status or put your homesteaded property in a trust or life estate in the last year, you MUST reapply for homestead exemption. State law requires you reapply if your property's title changed in any way. The deadline for applying for any exemption is March 1st.

Field Inspections of Properties

Florida law requires the Property Appraiser to conduct field inspections of each parcel every 5 years. When visiting your property, our staff will be easily identified by badges and shirts with both the Brevard Property Appraiser logo on the front and "COUNTY APPRAISER" on the back. Thank you for your help and assistance.

Value Adjustment Board (VAB)

If the property owner does not agree with their set market value or denial of exemptions, a petition must be filed at the Clerk of Court's office during the taxable year on or before the 25th day following the mailing of notice by the property appraiser. A petition must be separately filed for each grievance. The Property Appraiser's office cannot review accounts after the 25th day of the mailing of the proposed tax notice.

Tax Discounts for Veterans with a Service-Connected Disability

Disabled Ex-Servicemember: $5,000 with a Service-Connected Disability

Honorably discharged Florida residents disabled at least 10% may qualify for an exemption on any one property owned. A letter from Veterans Affairs or from the United States Government is required.

Veterans 65 or Older with a Combat-Related Disability

Persons honorably discharged 65 years of age or older may qualify for a discount based on their disability percentage. They must also provide a copy of their DD-214 and be receiving a homestead exemption on their property. A letter from Veterans Affairs or United States Government stating the disability is combat related is required.

Service-Connected Total & Permanent Disability Exemption

Honorably discharged Florida residents who are totally and permanently disabled due to a service-connected disability will be exempt from all ad valorem property taxes on their permanent residence. A letter from the Veterans Affairs or United States Government stating the Veteran is rated total and permanent disabled is required.

Limited Income Senior Exemption

If you qualify for homestead exemption, are at least 65 years old on January 1, and your household adjusted gross income for 2023 did not exceed $36,614 call one of our offices to speak to an exemption specialist.

What is TPP?

Tangible personal property, or TPP, is all property other than real estate used in a business or rental property for income-producing purposes and has intrinsic value. Examples of TPP include computers, furniture, tools & machinery, signs, leasehold improvements, supplies, and leased equipment. (see section 192.001(1)(d) of the Florida Statutes)

Who must File?

- All business owners, contractors, and self-employed agents owning tangible personal property as of January 1st.
- Property owners of leased assets (such as equipment or furniture rentals) as well as real estate landlords that rent their buildings.
- Every new business must file an initial TPP return, regardless of total property cost or value.
- Returns can be submitted by mail or electronically. (tpp@bcpao.us)

Tangible Exemption

To qualify for the Tangible Exemption, a business must file an initial return by the deadline of April 1st. Once an exemption is granted and if the assessed value remains under $25,000, the annual TPP filing requirement is waived.

Value Adjustment Board (VAB)

If the property owner does not agree with their set market value or denial of exemptions, a petition must be filed at the Clerk of Court's office during the taxable year on or before the 25th day following the mailing of notice by the property appraiser. A petition must be separately filed for each grievance. The Property Appraiser's office cannot review accounts after the 25th day of the mailing of the proposed tax notice.
